Biographical Note

Louis L. Ludlow was born June 24, 1873 on a farm near Connersville, Indiana to Henry Lewis and Isabella Ludlow. He began working for an Indianapolis newspaper when he was just eighteen years old. Ludlow became a correspondent in Washington, D.C. in 1901 and continued to work in the congressional press gallery until he was elected as a U.S. Representative in 1928. A Democrat, he was re-elected nine times. Ludlow was the author of several books and after retiring from Congress, he wrote a Sunday column for the Indianapolis Star. He married Katherine Huber on September 1, 1896 and they had four children. He died at the age of 77 on November 28, 1950.
